FORMAL DECLARATION OF WAR.

LONDON, JULY 17.

Representatives of the Dominions and Colonies are lending enthusiastic support to the movement to hold Meetings throughout Great Britain and the Empire, on the 8th August, the anniversary of the declaration of war, at which the following Resolution, which is approved by Mr. Asquith and Mr. Bonar Law, will be moved:—"On this anniversary of the declaration of righteous war, this Meeting of citizens records its inflexible determination to continue to a victorious end the struggle in the maintenance of those ideals of liberty and justice which are the common and sacred cause of the Allies."

(From Our Own Correspondents.)

THE FOURTH OF AUGUST.

CALCUTTA, JULY 25.

With the cordial approval of His Excellency the Viceroy, arrangements are being made for special services in all the Churches of the Anglican community throughout India on the 4th August, the anniversary of the commencement of the war between England and Germany, to pray for victory for the cause of the Allies, and for a speedy, honourable and lasting peace.

August 4th.

In a letter from Mr. Cassamally Jairazbhoy, which we publish to-day, attention is drawn to the aloofness of India from a movement which is intended, and is believed by its supporters in England, to be Imperial in nature. According to a Reuter telegram which we recently published, the anniversary of the declaration of war, on August 4, is to be marked by meetings held throughout Great Britain and the Empire at which a resolution is to be moved recording "inflexible determination" to continue the struggle to an end. We are not aware who are the promoters of this movement, but the fact that the resolution has the approval of Mr. Asquith and Mr. Bonar Law, shows that it is under the highest auspices, and the meetings are likely to prove a fitting complement to the church services which are to be held on that day. India is still part of the Empire, but we have heard nothing as yet of the authorities showing any wish to take part in this Imperial movement. There is still time to make good the omission, and it is to be hoped for the credit of India's name that some action will be taken without delay, also that the day may not pass without some special religious observance as is clearly desired by the King Emperor.

MADRAS AND THE WAR.

ON SUNDAY LAST REUTER INFORMED US, that the representatives of the Dominions and the Colonies in England were according enthusiastic support to the movement to hold Meetings throughout the Empire on the 4th August, the anniversary of the declaration of war by Great Britain, at which the following Resolution, which has been approved by the Premier and Mr. Bonar Law will be moved—

"On this anniversary of the declaration of a righteous war, this Meeting of citizens records its inflexible determination to continue to a victorious end the struggle in the maintenance of those ideals of liberty and justice which are the common and sacred cause of the Allies."

It will be seen from to-day's telegrams that the secular demonstration is to be supplemented by an imposing State Service in St. Paul's Cathedral, which H. M. the King-Emperor and the leaders of the nation will attend, to inaugurate the second year of the war and to invoke God's help. The minds of the people will be properly attuned to the solemn double ceremonial by the great preliminary open air Intercession Service to be held by the Bishop of London on the steps of St. Paul's next Sunday, the 25th instant.

Special significance would mark the occasion if similar double celebrations were observed throughout the Empire. In Madras, no time has been lost, as a movement is already on foot to hold a Public Meeting on the 4th August, over which it is hoped that H.E. the Governor will preside, as he will be in Madras on that day. The requisition to the Sheriff has been signed by the leading representatives of all communities in Madras, many of whom will take an active part in the Meeting, and it is only fitting that His Excellency should add completeness to the function by presiding at it. Only one Resolution will be proposed, namely, that given above. The simple device of moving the identical Resolution at every Meeting held for this purpose throughout the British Empire will give impressive emphasis to the "inflexible determination" of the Empire "to continue to a victorious end the struggle" on which it is now engaged. Members of all creeds and castes in India will also, we hope, hold religious Services on the 4th August, as they have done on all great national celebrations in the past. Following the example set by H.M. the King-Emperor and the people in England, we take it that there will be a State Intercession Service in the morning at St. George's Cathedral, conducted by the Lord Bishop of Madras, which H.E. the Governor will attend, to be followed by the Public Meeting in the afternoon. These celebrations, we trust, will not be confined to the Presidency Town, but will be observed in every town and village in the Presidency.

Wesleyan Churches.

Special Intercession Services will be held on August 4th in the local Wesleyan English Churches as follows:—East Parade Military, 8:30. a. m.; St. John's Hill, 11. a. m.; City Railway Station Chapel, 6. p. m. The Rev Alfred Garland will officiate.

Mizpah Hall.

August 4th being a Public Holiday, special services will be held in Mizpah Hall, Richards Town, for humiliation, supplication, prayer and thanksgiving on behalf of the British Empire and, those fighting and suffering for our homes and liberties. In full keeping with the object of the meetings, a short address, in the evening, will be delivered on Samson, the strong man, the exponent of personal might, in contrast to Samuel, the man of prayer, the exponent

P. F. Bowring, Esquire.,
Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District.

To

D.M. Narasinga Rao, Esq, B.A.B.L.,
offg. Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
General Department,

Sir,

I have the honor to submit herewith for the information of Government an account of the Proceedings of a Meeting held at Kolar on the 4th instant, the day of the anniversary of the commencement of the War.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

P. F. Bowring

Deputy Commissioner
Kolar District.

Proceedings of a Meeting held at Kolar on the 4th August 1915.

An open air Meeting was held at Kolar on the Parade Ground at 4 p.m. on the 4th August 1915, the anniversary of the commencement of the war.

All the officers, officials and non-official gentlemen in the Town were present in response to the notices that were widely circulated.

Separate accommodation was provided in tents for the ladies.

A detachment of Mysore Infantry was drawn up in line on the right, the local Police being on the left.

The Deputy Commissioner was voted to the chair, and he made the following remarks:-

"Ladies and Gentlemen -

You probably all know why we have met here this evening. It is a year to-day that England declared War against Germany. You may remember that last November at an entertainment held in the High School opposite, I told you that this war was not going to end quickly; that it would have its ups and downs and that it would be a war of exhaustion.

Well, Ladies and gentlemen, many things have happened since then, and no one can say that he sees the end in sight.

During the last 12 months, the Germans have occupied the greater part of Belgium and a portion of France, and now they are well in to Poland.

But what have they really achieved ? According to their original plans, they were to have been in possession of Paris within three weeks from the start of the war, but the check that they received at the hands of the Belgians at Liege, and the magnificent fight put up by the British Expeditionary force at the beginning of the war foiled their plans, and drove them back at the battle of the Marne, and they have been practically entrenched ever since and unable to push forward their armies in the West.

In the East, they have driven back the Russians who had at one time advanced a considerable distance across the Carpathian Mountains, but, it is extremely probable that they will find they have been lured on to eventual destruction.

The Turks also joined in the war against us and we are now engaged in advancing on Constantinople. Those of you who have read the accounts of the landing of the British and French Forces on the Gallipoli Peninsula - a place that was well-nigh impregnable - cannot but have the highest admiration for the bravery and determination of our troops in the face of well-nigh insuperable obstacles, and can have no doubt that such troops will succeed in the end.

And then I come to another point of view which you must not lose sight of, and that is, our magnificent Navy. Where would we have been but for their unceasing watchfulness ?

Germany owns, exclusive of her fleet, 2,098 seagoing steamers of 4,380,000 tonnage not to speak of 2,420 sailing ships of 447,870 tons register. Where are they now ? Not a single one is to be found on the High Seas, and what of their fleet of which they have boasted so much ? They are all shut up like rats in a hole, with our navy standing guard over them.

Perhaps, some day they may come out. We have been waiting for them for a year, and if they do come out, there will probably be the bloodiest naval battle that has ever been heard of, but we are really for them.

What have the German fleet done during the last 12 months ? Under cover of fog, they bombarded the defenceless sea towns of Scarborough, Whitby and Hartlepool, and killed a few women and children, but they tried this once too often and were caught by Admiral Sir David Beatty, and those of their ships that were not sunk were severely damaged, and they have not been heard of since.

In South American waters, a German squadron sank some of our ships, but Admiral Sturdee very soon avenged them, and sank the whole of the German squadron. As for the Emden, we all know what was her fate.

And then, we come to their sub marines. Have they any thing to be proud of ? What have they done, they have sunk defenceless merchant ships and ships pf neutral countries and innocent fishing vessels, their crowning achievement being to sink the Lusitania, the finest passenger ship in the world, and send over 1,300 people to their doom. Truly, a noble achievement !

There have been some Zepplin raids, it is true, but they have not done much after all.

Germany, as you know, has broken all the rules of civilised warfare. She has disgraced herself in the eyes of the whole world, and there is nothing for it but that she should be treated as a mad dog and put out of the way, when she can do no more harm.

She has committed innumerable crimes, looted and plundered towns, villages and churches, raped women, murdered old men and outraged children, and in fact, the only crime she does not seem to have committed is cannibalism..

It is for this reason that we have met here this evening. We do not want any sort or kind of patched up peace. We want to eventually place Germany in such a position that never again will she have it in her power to cause such an upheaval of the whole world.

The allies are going to win. In the words of Mr. Churchill, the world stands open to us. We can recuperate and strengthen ourselves as often as necessary. Our determination and power grow monthly. Men are streaming in and we are unable to equip them fast enough. Our resources are being well organised and the production of ammunition will be staggering. Is it strange that the British were not as strong as the Germans on the first day of the war seeing that those people had been preparing for themselves for 40 years?'

We do not wish for peace yet a while until Prussian militarism is crushed for ever.

And now, ladies and gentlemen, I will stop for the present so as to allow Mr.B.C. Krishna Sastri to speak to you on this subject in Kanarese, and Mr.Mirza Hasan Ali Beig, in Hindustani, and when they have concluded, Mr. Devaraj Urs will propose a resolution to which, I hope, we shall have the unanimous concurrence of all who are present here this evening, and which will show that we, in Kolar, are ready and willing to do our utmost to further the war to a successful conclusion. I may say that in the words of a once popular song, " we 've got the men, we 've got the ships and we 've got the money too ".

Mr. K.A. Krishnaswami Iyer, B.A, Head Master, Government High School, then read a sonnet composed by himself on 'German Lust For World-Dominion'.

Mr. B.C. Krishna Sastri, B.A. Sub Division officer, Malur Sub Division, then addressed the Meeting in Kanarese, and Mr. Mirza Hasan Ali Beig, Hindustani Head Master, spoke in Hindustani.

The Empire Resolution was afterwards put to the Meeting by Mr. C. Devaraj Urs, Superintendent of Police, seconded by Mr. C.B. Gopala Rao, Vice President, and supported by Mr. B. Venkataramaniah, Pleader. The Resolution was carried with loud cheers.

The Chairman in bringing the proceedings to a close, said:-

" And now, one more word. We have lost thousands and the allies between them millions of the finest manhood, who have willingly sacrificed their lives for the benefit of us and the world at large. It is but fitting that on an occasion like this, we should show our respect for the fallen dead. I therefore ask you all to stand while our buglers sound the last post and may they rest in peace".

After the last post was sounded, the Meeting terminated with the singing of GOD SAVE THE KING.

Arrangements had also been made for the conduct of special worship and offering of prayers in all the Muzrai Institutions in the Town on this day, for the success of the British arms and the speedy termination of the war.

A SONNET

AGAINST GERMAN LUST FOR WORLD-DOMINION.

O, Thou that chastenest men and nations proud
Who skill and culture, power, and wealth abuse,
And trusting to their human wit refuse
To seek Thy grace, with enmity avowed
Pursue a heartless war, oppress the weak,
Provoke the British Lion, override
Both Right and Justice, sowing misery wide ;-
Awake, My Lord, Thy dreaded vengeance wreak
On selfish Pride, Ambition scaling high.-
'Tis time to vindicate Thy equal care
For all. Indignant rise, crush them that dare
Oppose Thy will. Thy heavenly engines ply.
Grant England victory. Her foe like hare
Shall flee before Thy wrath in quick despair.
